THE POWER OF LOVE (London Answers.)

"The poor, weeping woman stood before the Judge, and the sympathies of the spectators went out to her. She looked muscular, but so miserable."

"You the charged" said the magistrate sternly but kindly, "with assaulting your husband."

"Yes your worship, I only asked the brute if he would ever cease to love me, and he was so long in answering that I hit him in the eye with a broom. I'm only a defenseless woman," she went on, in a broken voice, "and a woman's life without love is a mere blight!"

No Cause for Worry.

The pessimist and the Optimist were passengers in the aeroplane.

"Something has gone wrong," exclaimed the aviator when they had reached an altitude of 10,000 feet. "I can't steer the machine at all."

"Great heavens!" exclaimed the Pessimist. "I wish I were back to earth again!"

"Don't worry," said the Optimist. "We'll find our way back to earth all right."—Cincinnati Enquirer.
